KUBRI 2012: Careers and Education in the Arab World

Subheading: Opening of the second EuroArab Career and Education Fair

KUBRI on 11 May 2012, 10:00 hrs – M,O,C, Event Center Munich, Germany

*For the second time companies and universities from Europe and the Arab countries present themselves and provide information about their job and study offers in the MENA region. Experts from both regions guarantee a top-flight supporting programme. Admission is free for visitors. *****

After the successful initial event in 2011, the EuroArab Centre for Education is organising the second EuroArab Career and Education Fair KUBRI at the M,O,C, Event Center in Munich, Germany, on 11-12 May 2012.

Besides job offers and internships in or relating to the countries of North Africa and the Middle East (MENA Region), the Fair will in particular highlight study courses involving Arab universities.

“One aim of KUBRI is to develop Euro-Arab relations and boost dialogue especially at times of upheaval”, commented Norbert Hoffmann, co-organiser of KUBRI.

In parallel with the Fair, a high-profile visitor’s programme will provide information on current developments and in particular on the professional and academic opportunities in the MENA region. The programme will include events ranging from panel discussions and exhibitor presentations, to a photo exhibition on the United Arab Emirates.

KUBRI receives particular support through the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD), the German-Arab Friendship Association (DAFG), and the Bavarian capital of Munich.

The public opening for KUBRI will take place on 11 May 2012, 10:00 hrs at Munich’s M,O,C, Event Center. For the exhibitors of KUBRI, the event starts already on the evening of 10 May with a networking dinner, hosted in the New Building of the State Collection of Egyptian Arts Munich. Opening speaker will be among others, Dr. Otto Wiesheu, President of the German-Arab Friendship Association.
